FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26TH.

LITERARY SOCIETY

Another meeting of the High school literary society was held Wednesday February 24th. The society is making very rapid progress and this meeting was undoubtedly the best yet. The minutes of the last meeting held two weeks ago were read by the recording secretary Donald Ross and business was proceeded with. E. Walker discussed the advisability of collecting the fee and made a motion that it be collected. The motion was seconded by Florence Sutter and was unanimously carried. A discussion followed on the advisability of holding an open meeting. A show of hands led to the adoption of the suggestion. The following programme was then rendered:

Reading of the Literary Society paper by Anna Oliver.
 Instrumental solo, Albert Huff.
 Recitation, Tam O'Shanter, Mr. Ross.

Debate, resolved that Japan was justified in commencing hostilities against Russia and that Japan's success in the present struggle would be in the interests of civilization. The affirmative side was taken by Messrs. Gibson and McCallum and the negative side by Messrs. Peters and Mitchell. The Judge's decision was given in favor of the affirmative side by Mr. Ellis.

Mr. Johnston then gave the critic's report, after which the meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem.

SEED OATS.

Editor Bulletin: The seed oats question is at present being discussed over the length and breadth of this district. There are many farmers who will be unable for various reasons to purchase seed grain. If these farmers would take their seed drills and sow a small strip about ten yards wide in their garden at the earliest possible opportunity in the spring, and watch what proportion of the seeds germinate they will know how much of their seed to the acre they would have to sow. This early patch would be up by the time for putting in their seed.

Clover Bar.

SPORTS

CALGARY BREWING CUP.

Is Now a Permanent Possession of the Edmonton Senior Hockey Club Score 6 to 2.

Edmonton senior hockey team won their fourth-straight victory on Strathcona ice last night when they defeated Strathcona for the twelfth time this season. The game was very fast with the exception of the first ten minutes and the Edmonton team outplayed their opponents at every point. Edmonton was reinforced by the presence of Aylmer, a new man on left wing, who played a brilliant game and drew forth great applause from the Edmonton rosters, who are always in evidence.

Arnold Johnston was moved up to right wing owing to Greenwood's absence through sickness and played a splendid game. It is needless to refer to the other stalwarts, Sibbald, Bellamy, Barford, Wright and Humeston, for they couldn't play a poor game if they tried. Without a doubt Strathcona's stars are Dobson on the forward line and May on the defence. Both these players deserve very much better support than they get.

The crowd at the match was not large but it was exceedingly enthusiastic and both teams got great encouragement from the spectators.

The first ten minutes of the play was comparatively slow much end to end fighting being indulged in. Edmonton forwards kept up a bombardment of Strathcona's goal and Johnston and Sibbald took a pretty trip up the ice with the puck between them and Arnold ended the suspense by scoring no. 1 for Edmonton. Time 3 minutes. Five minutes more playing resulted in Sibbald again doing the same old trick bringing the score 2 to 0. It continued like this until half time with the game in Edmonton's favor.

The second half started out very fast and Dobson who played a whirlwind game scored for Strathcona in three minutes. Strathcona had evidently braced up considerably and commenced to rush matters. The puck travelled from end to end with great rapidity and Dobson finally secured with a phenomenal rush passed the Edmonton defence and hurled the puck into the net evening the score. Excitement grew intense and with the score even both teams started out to win. However the sport had been too much for the wearers of the red and white and from this on Edmonton scored goal after goal.

Arnold Johnston who played a beautiful game secured the puck from a mix-up at the Edmonton net and making a brilliant rush scored. Sibbald, Wright, Bellamy and Barford played their usual brilliant game while Humeston, who all that could be desired in the net. McKernan did not play his usual strong game. Blain played exceedingly well, and Richards and Ritchie played an average game. Roholt, in goal played his best game of the season. The Strathconas were greatly weakened by the absence of Kent, who was out of town.

At this time a little trouble ensued between Richards and Aylmer in which the crowd tried to take part. Matters were soon righted and both men were put on the fence to think it over. The next game was scored by Aylmer. Sibbald again scored for Edmonton, and shortly before full time Bellamy lifted a pretty shot on goal and made Edmonton tally 6 to 2.

The Edmonton team are in better shape now than they ever have been at any time this season, and should go through the balance of the winter, without meeting with a reverse.

After the match several Strathcona ladies served coffee and cake to the Edmonton Hockey team in their club room. This hospitality was highly appreciated by the Edmonton boys.

The line up of the teams was:
Edmonton Goal Roholt
Hameston Point May
Barford Cover Point McKernan
Bellamy Rover Blain
Wright Centre Ritchie
Sibbald Right Wing Richards
Johnston Left Wing Dobson
Aylmer
R. Albridge made a splendid referee. His decisions were uniformly fair. Several on both sides graced the fence.
